

2019 Facebook Group In Review: Table of Contents For Your Use & Feedback

With well over 250 posts since May 29, 2019, the Foothills Ward Temple and Family History Facebook Group has had a great run for all of us. The purpose has been twofold: 1) enlighten the "Spirit of Elijah" for pursuing ones genealogy and 2) provide a plethora of "how to" instructional posts featuring tools and techniques to motivate each of us to pursue our ancestors, gather family memories and establish the groundwork for future generations to add upon our genealogical pursuits. So we can all be a part of an eternal family together. To make this Facebook Group even more valuable for everybody, below is a review of its table of contents through today. It is organized by topics with both links provided for every individual "how to" web posting and its specific reference to which date each Facebook posting occurred. Note: this table of contents is updated daily and is available at the same URL now and in the future by always clicking here. There are other motivational postings that have not been posted because of the limitation of time, but I am willing to include any of these motivational postings to the table of contents upon your comments on this Facebook group. Please don't be bashful.

In the meantime, please submit to me any topics that need to be covered further and I and/or some of our "expert" followers will consider authoring a special post for that topic.
