The BYU Family History Library has just published a new video on their YouTube Channel: Teaching Family History with The Family History Guide at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=aSwellEvEaM>. This video explains how to present The Family History Guide website and how to prepare and deliver a variety of family history topics easily and effectively using the website. Watch for a blog post about the video this coming week. (See all tips at <https://www.thefhguide.com/tip-of-the-day.html>). Note: the BYU Family History Library is part of the Harold B. Lee Library at Brigham Young University. Its primary URL is very comprehensive at: <https://fh.lib.byu.edu/> and is particularly well organized for virtual use.

It may be the be single best-kept secret in the entire world in family history because of their sheer quantity and quality of video history instructional materials so readily available to the general public virtually at no charges. Especially is this noteworthy when considering that most Church local family history libraries are open on limited, restrictive hours because of the COVID 19 pandemic. And there are full-time Church Family History missionaries are available for technical support Monday through Thursday, 10 am to 8 pm and on Friday from 10 am to 6 pm.

Their comprehensive instructional videos at the BYU Family History Library are second to none. Check out their Video Categories at <https://fh.lib.byu.edu/classes-and-webinars/youtube-videos/>. Note: all links work for your convenience. In 2016, there were 200+ family history videos. More now than I care to count.

Its Video Category Navigation is a treasure-chest of pertinent V.I.P.assistance. Patrons will be helped in the order they join the Zoom link. Consultations will be 20 minutes or less when others are waiting; if a longer consultation is needed, that can be scheduled for another time in a manner that suits your needs. When you join the Zoom link, you will enter the virtual lobby and a missionary will assign you to a helper when it is your turn.
