Today I received a notification from RootsTech and when I look on my "Family Tree" phone app, there is a banner at the top of the opening page that says "Find Relatives at RootsTech" where you can look by Location and also by Ancestors Name. Our Co-Director of our Stake's Family History Center already has over 8,000 currently relatives registered who she can contact in advance of the conference. At the RootsTech 2022 Conference, my mentor in Nauvoo Illinois had well over 93,000 attendees and today he already has 18,883 connected. See 300 of them below are from 2021's conference. While I only had one relative mentioned? But regardless of your numbers, you can send them individual messages to initiate more communications. What's so nice is that you also peruse their family tree(s) to learn where and how you are actually related to them even before sending them an electronic message to further connect and share more genealogical information. Click on individual images for a larger size.

I would contact FamilySearch help line at info@rootstech.org and explain the circumstances if you don't have access to this advanced information on your phone by already registering for RootsTech 2022 and having the "Family Tree" app on your smartphone. Take full advantage of this most unique feature by attending the RootsTech 2022 Conference and cash-in now with new relationships to better pursue in your "Relative Race" for family history endeavors.
