

More Honey-Due Memories From Photos Recently Received from my Sister's Family

Honey works is much better than vinegar when bridging family relations when not everything is going well. Here are some classic photos recently received which are warmly appreciated for the memories they bring me.

The photo below is my grandmother who I had never seen: Tekla Bochnovich Kuzmich born in Stawisza, Poland (1875 to 1933). The only photo on the right is I only one I ever had of Tekla when she got married in 1899 in Passaic, New Jersey. Nice to have a more mature photo of my paternal grandmother.

My marriage photos of 1972 and a more recent one. While I may look reasonably well, I am moving much slower these days but also feeling well and in good health.

Miss Atlantic City Speed Boat at Steel Pier during the 1952 Miss America Contest with my sister with boy friend, my parents and me. Can you find me? Hint: second row.

My maternal relatives including my grandmother, Elizabeth Kovac, mother, Helen Kuzmich and her sister, Mary and my Great-Aunt Sue. And then my parents: Helen and John Kuzmich
