

Must Be Familiar With “The Family History Guide”: via its unique self-paced and training contents and mission statement (reads better at <http://www.kuzmich4.com/Facebook/Must%20Be%20Familiar.pdf>)

Their MISSION Statement is to greatly increase the number of people actively involved in family history worldwide, and to make everyone's family history journey easier, more efficient, and more enjoyable.

The slide has a light blue background. At the top, the title "The How and the Why" is written in a dark serif font. Below the title are two bullet points in a dark sans-serif font. The first bullet point says "The Family History Guide website has great information to explain the 'how' of family history, with Projects, Goals, Choices, & Steps." The second bullet point says "The Activities pages help to strengthen the 'why' of family history, emphasizing connections, fun, history, and relationships." Below the text is a rectangular photograph of a family of five: a man, a woman, and three children, all smiling. At the bottom left of the slide is the "The Family History Guide" logo, and at the bottom center is the copyright notice "© 2017 The Family History Guide Association".

"Five-Minute" Temple and Family History Activity Ideas

1. PRAY for personal revelation to help gather Israel on both sides of the veil. Make plans as families and individuals.
2. Open FamilySearch.org and CREATE YOUR OWN ACCOUNT if you haven't. Fill out everything you can to complete four generations! Call relatives for info. And ask the ward TFH leader and consultants to be of help.
3. As a family, play 20 Questions: "I am thinking of an ancestor who..." (answer yes/no questions). You could also put a note on family member's backs with the name of an ancestor to guess or places they lived, etc.
4. Learn about the FamilySearch tree features such as record hints, ID numbers, and person pages.
5. Explore the new features of the FamilySearch FAN CHART (click "tree" on your account): birth countries, research help, photos, family lines, needed ordinances, sources, and stories.
6. Find all the stories on your FamilySearch tree on the site All The Stories. This is a searchable list! One idea is to read these aloud and record them using the Memories App Audio Feature.
7. Find family names to take the Temple! Check out "Ordinances Ready". Read how to Verify names and relationships. So many of our youth have accepted the Temple Challenge given by Elder Cook!
8. Watch Elder Bednar's talk The Hearts of The Children Shall Turn. What are the promises? What will you do?
9. Play "The Human Knot" (watch this video and this one - The Family History Guide YouTube Channel).
10. Interview and record a family or ward Member using the Memories App Audio Feature. Save the stories to FamilySearch. Check out interview question ideas from the 52 Stories Project.
11. Go to The Family History Guide www.thefhguide.com and explore the hundreds of ACTIVITIES "families, individuals, youth and kids corner." Check out the "no prep" activities marked with an asterisk. Here are a few of the 200+ ideas. See the index of activities here.
