

Discover Your Story. Discover Yourself: Attend RootsTech 2020!

The RootsTech 2020 Conference, features the power of family – and discovering and connecting with your family has never been easier! RootsTech conferences are dedicated to celebrating and discovering family connections, both past, present, and future. Their RootsTech 2020 Conference, February 26-29, 2020 has over 300 breakout sessions, an exciting lineup of celebrity speakers, and a gigantic expo hall, there's something you're sure to love. Get ready to explore your family connections like never before.

Free RootsTech Video Library from Previous 2015 through 2019 Conferences

Need more proof that RootsTech is as good or better than as advertised?! Click here to peruse previous video highlights for previous RootsTech conferences. Featured are sample keynote and general sessions, RootsTech sessions and sessions for Latter-Day Saints,

Registration Options

You can register for the conference from either your FamilySearch or RootsTech accounts. This online URL for registration is <https://rootstech2020.smarteventscloud.com/portal/login.www>

Closing Comments

Find out why the RootsTech Conferences are simply amazing. Not only is this family history conference but its very location is adjacent to the Salt Lake City Genealogical Library. This is the perfect location for combining the conference with your own research in this, the world's largest genealogical library in world which has an army of Church genealogist for every part of the world who have the expertise and experience to be a difference-maker for every possible family history challenge! Take advantage of this unique opportunity and you'll be blessed twice: 1) learning new techniques and tools for your enhancing your genealogical pursuits and 2) get specific one-on-one personal assistance on your family history endeavors from experts in the field. Now that's a productive weekend!