

RootsTech 2022 Magic: A Gold Mine of V.I.P Insight Awaits All Of You Right Now!

The CEO of The Family History Guide, Bob Taylor, just emailed some significant resources currently available from the RootsTech 2022 annual conference just concluded March 3-5, 2022. Bob and I attended BYU at the same time and he is an outstanding jazz educator and trumpet performer before specializing in family history much like me except I'm a saxophonist.

A Wealth of RootsTech 2022 Videos

By Bob Taylor on Mar 13, 2022 04:49 pm

RootsTech 2022 Connect concluded on March 5, but the fun continues! There are over 3,700 videos posted on the RootsTech site, all free to watch at any time. Scroll down to the Sessions area on the home page and then click Explore. To find videos of interest, you can choose search filters such as Getting Started, Content Type, and Topic.... Here's a synopsis of these 3,700+ videos:

- Activities – 55
- Class Sessions – 1746
- Tips and Tricks – 303
- Inspirational Ideas – 255
- Product Demos – 292
- Keynote Addresses – 18
- Video series – 232

The Healing Power of Family History Work

By Bob Taylor on Mar 13, 2022 04:49 pm

Note: This article was published previously on the Granite Family History Center blog site. Several years ago, before we got our Family History Center, I was asked to head up a family history class on a ward level. I tried to interest the members to attend. I had little success. As I tried to recruit members, I approached a sister...

FamilySearch's Use of Artificial Intelligence and Handwriting Recognition

By Bob Taylor on Mar 13, 2022 04:48 pm

Note: This article was published previously on the Genealogy's Star blog site. <https://www.familysearch.org/en/newsroom/familysearch-get-involved-online-volunteer-experience> I have been involved with learning about and reporting about handwriting recognition for genealogical research for a long time. I always thought about it being something distant in the future. Well, apparently, the future is now. In the past few years, organizations such as the Brigham...

Closing Comments

It is never too late to learn about important family history resources. RootsTech first launched in 2011 with 3,000 attendees in which I both attended and presented and then grew to 32,000 in 2020, with thousands more who participated via livestream. In 2021, the first year the event went all virtual, that attracted more than 1 million visitors from 240 countries and territories. The 2022 attendances has still not be announced yet, but still tallying data, and will share more but we had over 700,000 registrants from 228 unique countries and territories this year. Our total participation exceeded 14,000,000 people and continues to grow.

7 Key Messages from RootsTech 2022 keynote speakers: “Each of us can connect in our own way”

RootsTech Connect 2022 features seven international speakers, shown in this combination image. They are, clockwise from top left, French-American baker Apollonia Poilâne; Argentine singer Diego Torres; Palestinian comedian Maysoon Zayid; African boxing champion Azumah Nelson; Food Network’s Molly Yeh; “Stranger Things” actor Matthew Modine; and Brazilian actress Thaís Pacholek Credit: Images provided by FamilySearch.org

Need More Motivation about RootsTech 2022 as it is still virtual and accessible to all!

- Got 3 minutes 15 seconds? Need A Story First Before Facts For Best Memories!
- RootsTech 2022 Highlights: Join The Party as It NOT TOO LATE TO REPENT at <http://www.kuzmich4.com/Facebook/RootsTech%202022%20Highlights.pdf>
- Never too late to register for RootsTech 2022 because . . . . at <http://kuzmich4.com/Facebook/RootsTechC%202022.pdf> which reads much better in formatting.
- Great RootsTech Bonuses For Registering in Advance of March 3-5, 2022 Conference By Cashing Sooner Than Later at <http://www.kuzmich4.com/Facebook/Great%20RootsTech%20Bonuses.pdf> (reads better at the URL cited above and just updated)