

RootsTech 2023: March 2–4: Don't Miss it As Here Are 13+ Reason's Why. . . !

You have the opportunity to inspire and help unite families for eternity by inviting individuals in your family to attend RootsTech 2023 by FamilySearch. Learn how family history can strengthen members as they continue on the covenant path and perform sacred ordinances in the temple. There are two ways members can participate in RootsTech: 1) in-person and 2) virtually. March 2-4 is less than three weeks from yesterday.

Closing Comments:

RootsTech 2023 will offer both in-person and online options. The last time RootsTech hosted an in-person event was in 2020, shortly before the onslaught of a COVID pandemic. That year more than 50,000 people attended the annual three-day family history gathering in Salt Lake City. How long will RootsTech sessions be available on the website after the conference? They will keep most of the classes and keynotes from RootsTech up for approximately three years. Most classes from 2021 will be available until the 2024 conference and 2022 classes until 2025. The first RootsTech conference was held in Salt Lake City in February 2011, drawing around 3,000 people. It was held again in 2012, drawing 4,500 people. In 2013, it drew 6,700 registered attendees with over 13,600 remote attendees and many attendees and vendors coming from other countries around the world. RootsTech is sponsored by FamilySearch. Register now at RootsTech.org. For conference updates, follow RootsTech on Facebook, Instagram or Twitter. I have attended nearly every RootsTech Conference and presented at their first two conferences. Consequently, it is not only the world's largest annual family history conference but also the very best one available.
