Please help spread the word about their classes. We hope that you will be able to attend and learn more. Due to limited capacity, they have to limit registration. If their webinar reaches capacity, the webinar will be streamed to the Family History Library Facebook page and can be viewed there. We thank you for your patience as they continue to update and enhance their webinars.

All of their classes are held in the Mountain Time Zone. For help converting our times to your time zone, we recommend using a site: <https://www.timeanddate.com/worldclock/converter.html?iso=20211228T180000&p1=220>

Closing Comments

- The first August 1 training on the FamilySearch Catalog would be for those wanting to learn more advanced research techniques.
- The 2nd one would be good for any one new to FamilySearch (including your patrons).
- The 3rd one would be good for all levels.
- The 4th one is for those interested in Chinese research and
- The last one would be good for anyone.
