

Family History Research with School Yearbooks: It Can Be Accomplished (reads better at <http://www.kuzmich4.com/Facebook/School%20Yearbooks.pdf>)

One of the best resources for capturing memories and information from school days is through yearbooks. Many of these have now been digitized for easier access. The Ancestor Hunt website at <https://theancestorhunt.com/yearbooks.html> has a great collection of resources for finding school yearbooks, including links to yearbooks from each U.S. state and tips for using yearbook information in your genealogy research. You can find additional info on yearbooks and research in Goal F1 at <https://www.thefhguide.com/project-9-united-statesf1.html#c> of the United States page. I don't have my high school yearbook anymore, but here are some photos related to it.

Here's my high school high band yearbook photo of an International Acclaimed High School Band: 1959 Rose Bowl Parade and 5 Gold Medals from World Music Contest in Kerkrade, Netherlands won in 1966 and 1970 with me below conducting the band in Paris at the Eiffel Tower.

High School Band Directors: James Moscati and Saul Kay

This community magazine (Clifton Merchant Magazine) regularly honors the “Mustang” band in 10-year increments. Here is the link to their July, 2021 issue: <https://issuu.com/cliftonmerchantmagazine/docs/clifton-merchant-magazine-july-2021> covering band the 1951 to 2011 bands with pages 9 to 16 pertaining to me with a host of photos describing all the excitement of my association both as a member of the Clifton High School "Mustang" Band and as a guest band director in 1966 and 1970. That's my 1961 yearbook photo below on their July 2021 cover in the very upper left corner outlined within a red box and separately on the right photo below as well.

The Mustang Band always gives top performances

THE MUSTANG BAND truly helps to put Clifton's name "on the map." The band has performed at pep rallies and parades, at the Herald News Band Festival, and in a competition in Washington sponsored by the American Automobile Association. In November the band displayed its talents at a New York Jets football game. In addition to all these commitments, the band has been working diligently, both musically and financially, preparing to compete this summer with bands from all corners of the globe at the World Music Festival in Kerkrade, The Netherlands.
