

Time Is Money: AND NO BETTER TIME TO GET RICHER VIA ONES GENEALOGICAL PURSUITS DURING the CORONAVIRUS!!!

With available time for our ward consultants to assist, and guide our members with their family history. The FamilySearch.org and The Family History Guide.com can be incredibly important right now. With the corona virus, our ward consultants can assist remotely through Zoom, FaceTime, Skype, Google Duo or Google Meet. URL's for appropriate self-paced Zoom video training:

How To Use Zoom For Video Conferencing

Kristi Hust YouTube - Feb 17, 2016

- To help motivate everybody, please consider the following General-Authority In-service training of February 27th which is now available at a must-see video training session of 1:08 hour at the 2019 seminar for ward family history consultants and leaders that is so fundamental for everybody. Elder Bednar, Sister Jones and Elder Renlund explained that "Missionary work and family history and temple work are complementary and interrelated aspects of one great work, 'that in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him'" (Ephesians 1:10)

"...The artificial boundary line we so often place between missionary work and temple and family history work is being erased; this is one great work.

- For anybody needing to improve their FamilySearch.org skills, click here for a March 2020 update or the level 1 training cited below. For those who are motivated to master FamilySearch, Bob Lathen of the Littleton Family History Center has compiled an incredible series of 6 lessons that give our ward consultants much confidence and proficiency in assisting our members remotely through Zoom, Skype, Face Time, Google Duo, and other free videoconferencing applications.
