

“Live” Unrehearsed Genealogy Research with Insight Tips for All Researchers Who Have Experienced Dead-ends In Their Research: (reads better by clicking here)

Are you following and subscribed to The Family History Guide Blog? If not, there’s a wealth of activity there with “how to” guides that can change your family history pursuits. For example, check these two examples cited below which are dynamite for dead-end research problems.. When I went to the second Blog listing below, there are actually 33 editions of their Live and Unrehearsed Research from Goldie May: Episode 33. Needless to say, if any of these trick research topics has ever eluded you, here are golden opportunities to jump start your research again. Their topics are enormous moving from searching African roots to probate records in Iowa, to Internet archives along with a myriad of others beyond my imagination in 33 editions. And all videos are relatively short and unrehearsed with candid and creative suggestions on how to proceed fearlessly coming from noted experts in the field. Video’s take away moment is at 21:40 minutes with particular recommendations to solve this unique research puzzle of no birth certificate for a child with three mothers in Illinois in the 1860’s before birth records were recorded in Illinois.

The screenshot shows a FamilySearch.org search results page for the 1870 United States Census in Illinois, Marshall, Whitefield. The page displays a list of individuals with handwritten entries for names, ages, sexes, occupations, and birthplaces. A video player is overlaid on the right side of the page, showing a man speaking. The video player has a progress bar at 21:32 / 22:53.

Name	Sex	Age	Birth Year (Estim.)	Birthplace	Race	Relationship Code
Carlisle John	28	M	1842	Illinois	White
Sarah	22	F	1848	Illinois	White
Rebecca	4	F	1866	Illinois	White
Annemath May	6	F	1864	England	White
Hostilton Milina	26	M	1844	New York	White
Amanda	26	F	1844	Illinois	White
Stephen	3	M	1867	Illinois	White
Eddie S.	1	M	1869	Illinois	White
Bradley Comings	25	M	1845	Ohio	White
Mary	16	F	1854	Illinois	White
Green George	41	M	1829	Illinois	White
Marruth	37	F	1833	Illinois	White

Live and Unrehearsed Research from Goldie May: Episode 33

By Bob Taylor on Jan 08, 2023 02:26 pm

Here is the latest video from their “Live and Unrehearsed” series. This video will give you insight into how to do research online. There is about one new video per week released on the Goldie May YouTube Channel. Here is the link to Episode 33. It discusses how a dead-end in researching a woman was solved by researching her children.... For a good synopsis of this video’s discovery learning explorations, go to the 21:40 minute mark for active suggestions.

What You Probably Do Not Know About the FamilySearch Catalog and About Catalogs in General

By James Tanner on Jan 08, 2023 02:27 pm Note: This article was published previously in the Genealogy’s Star blog site. He spent a great portion of his life both working and as a patron in libraries. He started going to the Phoenix Public Library in Phoenix, Arizona when he was about 8 years old and was a constant patron of that and other libraries as I...

Unrehearsed Genealogy Research >

Goldie May - 33 / 33

1 Unrehearsed Genealogy Research #1: Kentucky &... Goldie May 36:50

2 Unrehearsed Genealogy Research #2: New York & UK Goldie May 28:42

3 Unrehearsed Genealogy Research #3: New England Goldie May 33:03

4 Unrehearsed Genealogy Research #4: Internet Archive... Goldie May 29:06

5 Unrehearsed Genealogy Research #5: New York, pre-... Goldie May 27:44

6 Unrehearsed Genealogy Research #6: Denmark Goldie May 32:54

7 Unrehearsed Genealogy Research #7: New York, early... Goldie May 35:36

16 Unrehearsed Genealogy Research #16: Looking femal... Goldie May 32:49

17 Unrehearsed Genealogy Research #17: Descendancy... Goldie May 32:35

18 Unrehearsed Genealogy Research #18: Does John... Goldie May 22:41

19 Unrehearsed Genealogy Research #19: Confirming... Goldie May 30:26

20 Unrehearsed Genealogy Research #20: Using land... Goldie May 27:13

21 Unrehearsed Genealogy Research #21: Mixed up... Goldie May 26:48

22 Unrehearsed Genealogy Research #22: New research... Goldie May 28:25

23 Unrehearsed Genealogy Research #23: Still looking in... Goldie May 32:05

32 Unrehearsed Genealogy Research #32: Kathryn Grant... Goldie May 53:09

Unrehearsed Research #33: James says to research this... Goldie May 22:54

Closing Comments

Here are bios of the presenters: Goldie May's professional log in stage name is Richard K Miller. On a personal note, he is a software developer who worked in tech roles at three genealogy companies. Now he is building a Goldie May App to be the tool he wants for his own genealogy research. I hope it's also useful to you!, Watch a 3-minute video about what Goldie May can do. Goldie is his great-grandmother's name and May comes from a beloved ancestor on his wife's side of the family.

James L. Tanner B.A. Degree; Spanish, M.A. Degree; Linguistics, University of Utah. J.D. Degree; Law, Arizona State University. 39 years Arizona trial attorney. Over 39 years in genealogical research. Avid Blogger of Genealogy's Star and Rejoice. He now has accumulated 17 years as a Family History Volunteer, presently serving at the awesome BYU Family History Library. On the Board of Directors of The Family History Guide Association. Presenter at Expos and Conferences in the U.S., Canada and Europe.